

The New Education Institute, Nashik's

Late Sau. Ratnaprabha Prabhakar Vaishampayan Arts, Commerce & Science Night College

Opp. Nashik District Court, Nashik-422002

Phone No. 0253-2995288

Email Id- principal.rpvnightcollege@gmail.com

College Code No. 0888

Website- <https://srpvnightcollegensk.com>

AISHE Code- C-41682

Affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune College ID- PU/NS/ACS/137/2009

TITLE OF BEST PRACTICE:

1. DISASTER MANAGEMENT

OBJECTIVES:

1. To increase awareness among students about disaster and the importance of their management.
2. To encourage students what they have to do that situations when after disaster .
3. To help which people suffering in regarding disaster i.e. flood, earthquake land sliding.
4. To facilitate communication & co oration between the disaster people and their relatives.
5. To help meet the people of the local community in emergency situations through the use.of management

THE CONTEXT:

S.R.P.V. Night College, Nashik ; educational institution located in the center of the Nashik District has a long history of organizing disaster management camps as a part of its commitment to social responsibility.

These camps have been held annually for the past 2 years with the goal of promoting the importance of disaster management and its people saving life's. The college celebrates important of disaster management in students future life by organizing disaster management camps which are attended by students, teachers, administrative staff, NSS students and other members of the community. By participating in these events, the college aims to raise awareness about the importance of disaster management and inspire others to by take a demo. S.R.P.V. Night College, Nashik College is proud of its importance of organizing disaster management camps and believes that this activity aligns with its motto of "Save Nature Save Life."

THE PRACTICE:

Our college, in partnership with the deputy controller of civil defence force in Nashik organizes in college campus on social activity. This effort has been ongoing for the past 5 years and is supported by the voluntary participation of our College's Teachers, Administrative Staff, NSS students, Parents and other students. In addition to these Organized camps our students also actively disaster management in emergency situations in the Nashik. Through this ongoing social service work our college aims to not only provide life-saving assistance to those in need, but also instill values of compassion and community service in our students.

Conclusion

The goal of organizing disaster management camps is to motivate college staff and students how to help disaster affected people and engage in social service. These camps aim to identify suitable donors. It is important that these camps are well-organized and prioritize the safety of both the patient/recipient and the helping people. The disaster management staff should be professional, friendly and approachable. The demand for blood continues to grow with the increasing population and advances in medical procedures. Only through voluntary blood donation camp, we ensure a sufficient supply of blood to save lives. By holding regular blood donation camps, we can ensure a consistent availability of blood units for emergency situations and provide a reliable source of safe blood. It is a selfless act that can have a profound impact on the lives of others. Our college is proud to hold an annual disaster management camp to help needy people.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED AND RESOURCES REQUIRED:

1. Some students may be hesitant or fearful about disaster management.
2. Some female students scared and curious about disaster management campaign.
3. There may be a lack of understanding or awareness about the importance and process of disaster in the community. disaster management Camps.

2. BLOOD DONATION

“DONATE BLOOD AND BE THE REASON FOR A SMILE ON SOMEONE’S FACE “

OBJECTIVES:

1. To increase awareness among students about blood banks and the importance of blood donation.
2. To encourage students to make a commitment to donate blood at least once a year.
3. To sensitize students to the need for timely blood donations to help those in need.
4. To instill a sense of community service and the value of helping others through blood donation.
5. To facilitate communication and coordination between the organization and the blood bank in Gadhinglaj Taluka.
6. To help meet the blood needs of the local community in emergency situations through the use of blood banks

THE CONTEXT:

S.R.P.V. Night College, Nashik ; educational institution located in the center of the Nashik District has a long history of organizing blood donation camps as a part of its commitment to social responsibility. These camps have been held annually for the past 10 years with the goal of promoting the importance of blood donation and its impact on saving lives. The college celebrates important national holiday, Gandhi Jayanti, by organizing blood donation camps which are attended by students, teachers, administrative staff, NSS students and other members of the community. By participating in these events, the college aims to raise awareness about the importance of blood donation and inspire others to donate. S.R.P.V. Night College, Nashik College is proud of its history of organizing blood donation camps and believes that this activity aligns with its motto of "Blood Donation for Life."

THE PRACTICE:

Our college, in partnership with the Arpan Patpedhi Blood Bank in Nashik Gadhinglaj, organizes an annual blood donation camp on the occasions of Gandhi Jayanti (2nd October). This effort has been ongoing for the past 10 years and is supported by the voluntary participation of our college's teachers, administrative staff, NSS students, Parents and other students. In addition to these organized camps our students also actively donate blood in emergency situations in the Nashik. Through this ongoing social service work our college aims to not only provide life-saving assistance to those in need, but also instill values of compassion and community service in our students.

CONCLUSION:

The goal of organizing blood donation camps is to motivate college staff and students to donate blood and engage in social service. These camps aim to identify suitable donors whose blood will be safe for the recipient and will not cause harm to the donor. It is important that these camps are well-organized and prioritize the safety of both the patient/recipient and the blood donor.

The blood bank staff should be professional, friendly and approachable. The demand for blood continues to grow with the increasing population and advances in medical procedures. Only through voluntary blood donation can we ensure a sufficient supply of blood to save lives. By holding regular blood donation camps, we can ensure a consistent availability of blood units for emergency situations and provide a reliable source of safe blood. Donating blood gives someone a second chance at life and allows donors to be a part of a group dedicated to helping others. It is a selfless act that can have a profound impact on the lives of others. Our college is proud to hold an annual blood donation camp to help meet this important need.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED AND RESOURCES REQUIRED:

1. Some students may be hesitant or fearful about donating blood.
2. Some female students may not meet the weight and HB requirements for blood donation.
3. There may be a lack of understanding or awareness about the importance and process of blood donation in the community. Blood Donation Camps